

I enjoy my Satellite radio and I get better stations. I don't feel that the FCC should be involved with deciding what I listen to since I pay for this privilege. By them changing the weather or taking away the traffic reports will not make me change to local channels. I just will not settle for inferior stations free or paid for.